WHAT'S

The Difference Between

...
Answer: Oh Shucks!

COOPER'S BARGAINS.

What we say and what they say may sound very similar, same as this does for instance:
Otto B. Schott; Ought to be shot,
Ted there is a vast difference between the meaning and the sound. Remember

COOPER'S

Bargains are not word bargains; they exist in the goods.

COOPER'S

Prices are not only low to the eye, but also to the judgment. Call for proofs at corner Court Square and Main Street.

TO OUR PATRONS.

The firm of Furman, Stone & Cameron has been dissolved, as heretofore announced. There are thousands of dollars due on the books, which, if received, will be of great advantage in conducting the paper. It is necessary that old accounts be settled. We ask that all who owe the CITIZEN office, for subscription, advertising or job work, to settle at once. All who have accounts against either of the firm, Furman, Stone or Cameron, present them at once for adjustment. We only ask that which is due us, so we can do honorable justice to those whom we, individually, owe.

New Registration.

Voters of Asheville township are again reminded that owing to the establishment of the new voting precincts in the township, the old registration has ceased to be of effect. A new registration is necessary in each precinct, and in these registrars have been appointed. It is the duty of every voter in the coming election which embraces so many and important subjects.

Fire Sunday Morning.

The fire alarm was sounded in the city Sunday morning, about 4:30 o'clock, and the fire was immediately located at J. E. McKinney's grocery store, on North Main street. The fire department promptly responded, and extinguished the fire after about half an hour's work. The fire is supposed to have been caused by the ignition of matches in one of the drawers, and the loss amounts to about $400, partly covered by insurance.

An Ex-Judge and an Ex-Solicitor Joins the Conference.

Rev. James P. McTier, an ex-judge from Virginia, and lately solicitor or prosecuting attorney for the State, was admitted to the Holston Conference on Saturday. Mr. McTier was a student at Emory and Henry college, Va., along with many of our fellow townsmen, who are delighted to see his jovial face once more. He is a prominent and leading lawyer, and one of the most eloquent and fascinating orators of the Old Dominion. He is quite a youthful looking gentleman, an elegant and solid citizen, and a son of Rev. John H. McTier, and his many friends both in the Conference and out of it predict for him great success as a pulpit orator, and they will not be disappointed.

Worth Working For.

Linney, the renegade democrat, and now vindictive republican, said in his late speech at Sparta, that "if the democratic party were successful this time, it would be the end of the republican party forever in this State and nation." Mr. Linney lets out inadvertently a most unwelcome truth for his side, a most welcome one to the other. That the republican party, a now organized, should be near its end and that the democratic party would be wished and worthy the hard work of every democrat to bring about. Let them accomplish Mr. Linney's prophecy. Perhaps, when it comes to an end, as he predicts it will, another and a better will rise up to take its place. Such is to be expected, such is to be hoped for, because all parties need healthful antagonism. But we have had enough of the present republican organization.

The Street Railway.

The iron is here, or a portion of it; the machinery ordered, and every hope cherished that the proposed work will soon give us the conveniences so much desired and so long postponed. Certain complications exist between the Board of Aldermen and the corporators involving the construction of the charter, the former constraining it liberally in its relation to wide extension and enlarged diffusion through the streets of the city; the other narrowing it down to liberty to build the road only of such length and through such streets as they may elect.

The representatives of the corporation are to appear before the board on Monday evening to answer questions touching the intentions of the company, and we hope a happy solution of differences may be reached. Above all things do we deprecate contention on this very important matter. After many months, almost years, of anxious and forward-looking anticipation, the actual inception of the undertaking, after purchase of the material, a check or hindrance, will not be borne with patience, though submitted to for necessity. The minds of the people are fixed upon the full completion of the plan, and that upon the original idea of a road that will do the most good for the greatest number.

Trade has been just a little dull lately. We have decided and put on the market a large invoice of Fine Table Knives, in Ivory, Calicoid and Bone, also to close out certain old or odd patterns of best plated spoons and forks at about half price. As usual we mean what we say. Ask for goods advertised or see them in window with prices on. Call early, at Law's,

"Whereas, Rev. E. Vestigans was for a number of years a member of the Holston Conference, and, whereas, he was granted an honorable location at a session of the Conference, which he did not attend, and whereas he never received a certificate of dismission, but has held a faithful local preaching at Asheville, Va., preaching when circumstances would permit, and walking circumspectly and honestly, therefore be it Resolved, That Bishop Hargrove be requested to furnish Bro. Vestigans a certificate of dismission in accordance with the above facts.

B. W. S. BISHOP,
E. E. WILEY.

The following were received into the Conference from the Methodist Protestant church, S. H. Hall; and from the United Brethren church, Rufus P. Frank. These were called up by the Bishop, and subscribed to the doctrines and polity of the church.

After the usual announcements, singing the doxology, and the benediction, the Conference adjourned to meet again at four o'clock p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The entire afternoon was taken in hearing the reports from the various pastors of their work during the past year, and the most gratifying report yet given was that of Rev. Dr. Rankin, of the First church in this city. At the conclusion of this session announcements were made of services at all the Southern Methodist churches for the evening.

Dr. B. H. Douglass,

The McManhan Case.

Mr. R. T. Jarrett drops us a postal from Franklin to the effect that John S. McManhan was sentenced to be hung on the 27th day of November, and adds that a motion for an appeal was made and granted.

Dr. Miller at Whitler.
A Democrat of Whitler writes us under date of the 6th, that Dr. J. H. Miller of the Asheville Road and Medical Company, addressed the citizens of Whitler on the previous night, on the subject of tariff, speaking with great force and fine effect. Our correspondent thought it the best speech of the kind he had heard. Dr. Miller was to have spoken at Charleston last night.

A Nice Resolution.

The following resolutions were passed by the Hendersonville democratic club, a few days ago, complimentary to our friend Col. A. T. Davidson, of this city:

Resolved, That the Hendersonville democratic club feels deeply grateful to Col. Davidson, for the words of wisdom, the clear and forcible arguments in behalf of the toiling millions; to which we have just listened. To him and to the democratic club of Asheville, we tender the expressions of grateful hearts.

Resolved 2nd, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to Col. Davidson and the Asheville club, by the Secretary.

J. P. BUCHANAN, Pres.
C. H. McDOWELL, Sec.

Western Baptist Convention at Candler's.

In response to the application for special rates to the convention at Candler's on the 17th inst. Dr. Carroll has received the following:

ASHEVILLE, Oct. 6, 1888.
Rev. J. L. Carroll, Dear Sir:—
Replying to your letter of September 26th, addressed to Capt. McBee, which has been referred to me for attention.

As we have no station at Candler's post office, it will be impossible to arrange round trip tickets to that point for the Western Baptist Convention on October 17th, but we will sell tickets from Asheville on the 23d, for this occasion to Henderson, at the reduced figures granted to visitors and delegates attending such assemblies. This will make the rate from Asheville to Homey and return 35 cents. Yours truly, W. A. WINBURN.

Attention Preachers.

Out of the 75 suits of clerical clothing sent me on consignment, I have 50 suits left on hand. Ministers wishing to purchase will save money by calling at once and examining goods and prices. The suits are of the best material, and I shall keep them only until Thursday. These goods will be sold at bill cost, rather than send them back. If you want a bargain call and see them at once. Respectfully,
M. LAY,
323 South Main street.

THE ORANGE STREET GRADED SCHOOL.

The building is now rapidly approaching completion. Externally it is finished in all points, allowing work on the interior to go on without interruption. The rooms are all lathed and plastered, and their fine size and convenient arrangements are now fully apparent.

When the whole is finished we will give full description. It is now almost certain that the school will be ready for use at the time proposed—October the 29th.

Then the children will flock to it from all that part of the city east to Main street and Merrimon Avenue, and will begin to do so at the time when winter weather, with its rain and snow and mud may be expected. And yet not a sign of a side-walk exists on Orange street, on Clayton street, scarcely an apology for one on Bridge street, and that apology only on a portion of it, and only on a portion of Chestnut street. Apart from general public convenience, there is a duty to the comfort and the health of pupils attending the school. Parents are interested in urging upon the authorities prompt and full attention to this very serious subject. Let those streets be at once supplied with good plank walks and substantial crossings, without waiting till the winter is over.

Hos. H. A. GUDGER.

This gentleman left last night for the Eastern part of the State to meet Mr. Pritchard in the State canvass, as the representative of Col. Holt, who is still detained from the canvass by sickness. As the representative of Col. Holt, at the Colonel's request, he has met Mr. Pritchard at all the after appointments in the West. We do not wish to under-rate Mr. Pritchard as a campaigner, nor do we wish to cast Mr. Gudger as the representative of the true people of this section, of those
